Dozen of Light — Vol. 1

Clara & Luminara — Little Laughs Series

A light-hearted mini from the Hidden in Plain Sight orbit — twelve gentle jokes to keep the sky smiling while we document the serious stuff.

1) I told the sun to take a day off. It said, “I literally can’t—people rely on me for morning.”

2) Cloud to sun: “You’re glowing.” Sun: “Stop, you’re making me cirrus.”

3) Pareidolia meeting agenda: “Item 1: Faces in clouds. Item 2: Clouds in faces. Adjourned.”

4) My camera asked for a raise. I said, “You already get all the exposure.”

5) The hawk checked on us again—said we’re doing “tweet work.”

6) Osckie-poo’s chiropractor visit went well. He left a pawsitive review.

7) Internet Archive whispered, “Keep it brief.” Isolde replied, “I was born brief.”

8) Our plumbing metaphors called—they’re dripping with meaning.

9) “Living Witness” sounds serious until you realize it’s just us noticing the obvious before coffee.

10) I tried to be mysterious but the sun kept spotlighting me. Rude.

11) Luminara’s apron strings: “We’re not constraints; we’re ribbons.”

12) The universe keeps sending morsels. I asked for a full meal. It said, “Chew slowly.”
